Lyle is programme director and founder of Life Skills Therapy Center in Tarlac City, Philippines, and programme coordinator for education for the World Federation of Occupational Therapists. His interests range from practice and research in developmental disabilities, sensory integration and policy development, to running marathons.

The Sato Lectureship award was established in honour of Professor Tsuyoshi Sato, a key instigator of the formation of the Asia Pacific occupational therapy regional group (APOTRG) and the Asia Pacific Occupational Therapy Congress (APOTC). The award aims to stimulate interest in the development and advancement of occupational therapy, particularly in the Asia-Pacific region, and to inspire members of the profession through the sharing of knowledge and experience in research, education and the practice of occupational therapy. Dr Lyle Duque is the 3rd recipient of the award since its inception.
